Each year, the University shall make available to eligible employees 120 Incentive Awards. The awards shall be distributed in the next award cycle after ratification of this document as set forth in Paragraphs (a) through (f) below. Regardless of the contract length (9 months through 12 months), award recipients shall receive a one-time award of $5,000 as soon as practicable and a $5,000 increase to their salary effective at the beginning of the succeeding academic year. Employees on visiting and other temporary appointments are not eligible for incentive awards.

Each academic year the University shall make available up to fifty-five UCF-TIP awards to employees. Employees applying for TIPs must meet current productivity criteria.

(b) UCF-Research Incentive Award Program. The UCF-Research Incentive Award (“UCF-RIA”) program recognizes outstanding research, scholarly, or creative activity that advances the body of knowledge in a particular field, including interdisciplinary research and collaborations. Each academic year the University shall make available up to fifty-five UCF-RIA awards to employees. The UCF-RIA award recognizes employee contributions to UCF’s key goal of achieving international prominence in research and creative activities.

(c) Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Awards (SoTLs). SoTLs use discovery, reflection, and evidence-based methods to research effective teaching and student learning. While the implementation of SoTL outcomes can result in teaching excellence, the implementation of SoTL outcomes can result in teaching excellence and increasing teaching effectiveness, this award recognizes not teaching excellence but scholarly efforts. For academic year 2016-2017, the University shall make available up to ten (10) SoTL awards.

(d) Applications for Incentive Awards. Beginning with the 2016-2017 awards, the Office of Faculty Excellence will initiate an electronic application process.

(e) Incentive Award Selection.
TIPs/RIAs. College or unit committees for the TIP and RIA award programs shall be elected by and from the unit employees. The committees shall equitably represent the departments or units within them. Employees who plan to apply for a particular award in the current or immediately following cycle shall not be eligible to serve on the committee. A committee chairperson for each incentive award program shall be elected by and from the college/unit committee. The chairperson shall charge the committee that members shall only consider the merits of the application. No additional outside information or discussion of position, e.g., instructor vs. tenure track faculty, past awards, current salary, etc., may be considered. The committee shall review the award applications and shall submit a ranked list of recommended employees to the dean or dean’s representative. In ranking the applicants, committee members shall only consider the merits of the application. The committee shall not impose any numerical criteria or weightings during the ranking process, and for completed applications, departures from the application specifications may impact but shall not disqualify an application.

(a) Each committee member shall review all applications and transmit a preliminary ranking to the committee chair. Committee members may rank as many applicants as they deem merit the award, with the highest rank given to the top candidate (i.e., the highest rank equals the number of applicants, N), the next highest rank being N-1, and so on. Applications that are not deemed acceptable for an award shall be left unranked.

(b) In larger colleges or units, subcommittees may be formed from the committee at-large in the interest of efficient evaluation of the incentive award applications. Each subcommittee must include at least three members, and every member of the committee at-large must serve on a subcommittee. The applications to be reviewed will be equitably partitioned among the subcommittees. The subcommittees will follow the ranking procedure outlined above to determine which applications they will recommend to the committee at-large. Then the committee at-large will be convened to review the applications recommended by the subcommittees. The members of the committee at-large will discuss the subcommittee recommendations and, finally, use the ranking procedure described above to rank the applications recommended by the subcommittees. In the event of ties, the ties will be broken as described below.

(c) The committee chair shall convene the committee and review their initial rankings. Discussion shall be limited to information contained in the application and may focus on applicants with a large variance in rankings, to try to identify the cause of and reduce disparate rankings.

(d) Following this discussion, the committee shall use a secret ballot to rank candidates using the procedure stated above in this section.

(e) A majority of voting committee members present must rank an applicant for that employee to be eligible for an incentive award.

(f) The applicant with the highest mean score will have the highest priority for an incentive award, the applicant with the next highest mean score the next highest priority, and so on, until all applicants who received a majority of votes are ranked in order.

(g) In the case of a tie vote that must be resolved to allocate available awards, the committee shall vote on just the tied candidates. The candidate with the most votes shall be ranked ahead of those with fewer votes. Voting shall continue using this procedure until all such ties are resolved.

(h) The committee chair will transmit this ranked list to the dean or dean’s representative, or unit head who approves the awards. If the selection committee awards fewer than the number of awards available or if the dean or unit head does not approve an award from the list submitted by the selection committee, then the award(s) shall be retained in the same college or unit for one additional cycle before it is returned to the overall pool for apportionment.
(i) If the number of previously awarded (i.e., awarded prior to 2018) but relinquished (e.g., due to retirement or resignation) TIP and RIA awards exceeds fifty after the 2017 award cycle, then the relinquished pre-2018 awards beyond fifty shall be pooled at the university level, along with the new awards for that year, and distributed in proportion to the number of eligible faculty in each college. No Incentive awards issued after ratification of this document that are relinquished shall be eligible for re-issuance (future awards are not pooled for redistribution)
(j) For purposes of TIP/RIA selection as stated above, “college” shall also include the group of employees whose primary assignment is in the College of Undergraduate Studies, the College of Graduate Studies, an institute or center. These employees shall be grouped together for purposes of calculating the number of awards available for each award category. The college committee shall consist of a member from each of the units represented.

In the event such salary increases are not permitted by the terms of the contract or grant, or in the event adequate funds are not provided, the president or president’s representative shall seek to have the contract or grant modified to permit or fund such increases.
