

Student/Faculty ratio at UCF, FSU, UF (Orlando Sentinel)

UCF student-to-faculty ratio high in state, nation

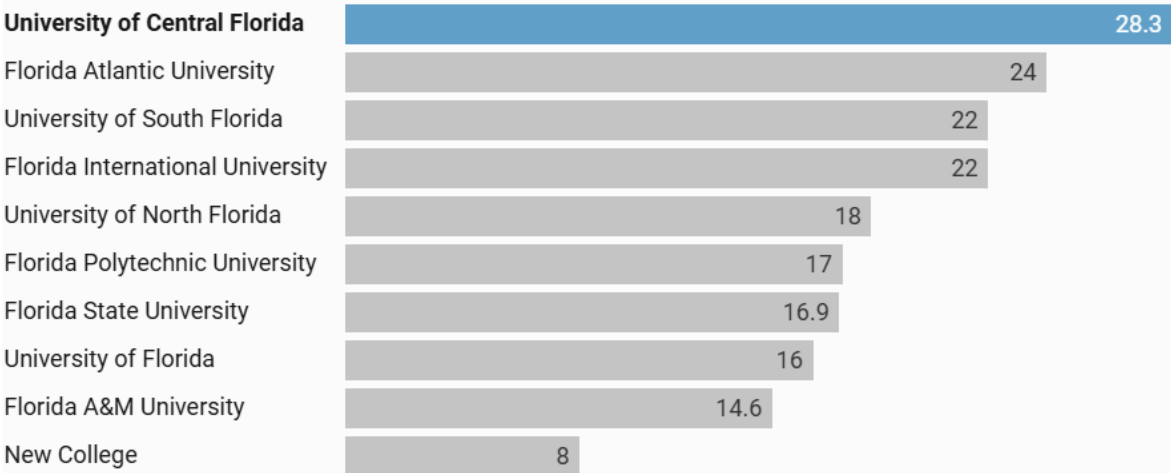

The number of students per faculty member at the University of Central Florida has exceeded fellow state universities for 20 years. It was about double the U.S. average for four-year public universities in 2022, the latest available national data.

Based on Common Data Sets for Fall 2024. National average from the National Center for Education Statistics.
Chart: Zoey Thomas | Orlando Sentinel • Get the data • Created with Datawrapper

How UCF stacks up statewide

The University of Central Florida had more students per faculty member than any other state university in 2024.

UCF dominates in large-sized classes

The University of Central Florida leads in the percentage of undergraduate classes with over 100 students enrolled as of the 2024-25 school year.

University of West Florida and Florida Gulf Coast University did not have Common Data Sets, which employ analytical standards that can be compared to other schools, available for the 2024-25 school year.

Chart: Zoey Thomas | Orlando Sentinel • Get the data • Created with Datawrapper